FEBRUARY MEETING

The February meeting of the Stonewall Jackson Amateur Radio Association was called to order by Dick Fowler. After the Treasures report was passed out the meeting was turned over to Dirk Burnside, WD8PAD, who gave a talk on Emergency Communicator Training and the various ways club members could receive the training and become certified.

A motion was made by Roland Knicely KC8HHM and seconded by Richard Skinner K8RAS to have the training on March 22nd and March 29th at the St Marks Lutheran Church from 9 AM till 5 PM. The motion passed. Further discussion on the training will be at the March meeting.

A motion was made by Roland Knicely to nominate Dave Anderson N8YPE, to be the Emergency Coordinator for Harrison County. The motion was seconded by Hal Tate N8FXH and approved by the members present at the meeting.

Another motion was made by Roland and seconded by Hal nominating Dave Anderson as Trustee of the club call sign. The motion carried.

A third motion was made by Roland Knicely and seconded by Hal Tate nominating Jamie Higgenbotham KC8KXI, as the VEC for the club. The motion carried.
